Public Engagement Workshop:
Procedures

Integrated Delivery Schedule

September 6, 2023

Allyn Childress, OERI

Background

- The Task Force and Working Group have a history of coordination and public engagement for the IDS.
- The Task Force and Working Group helped coordinate the development of the initial IDS in 2008 and sponsored public engagement workshops for the 2011 and 2015 updates.
- Annual public engagement workshops have been sponsored by the Task Force since 2019 at the request of the US Army Corps of Engineers (Corps)

Workshop Format

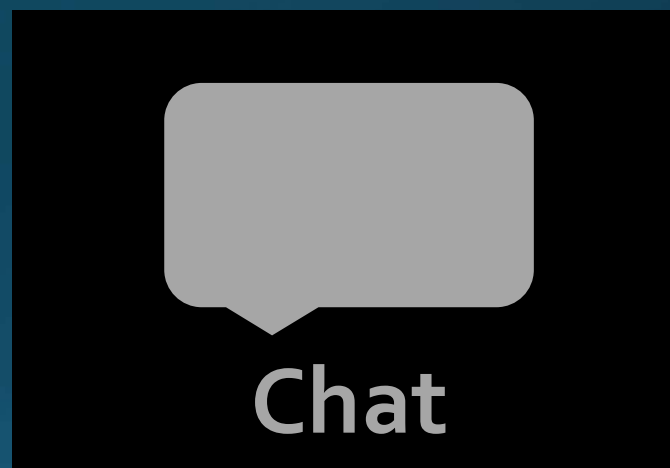

- This workshop is designed to:
 - Add value for the public and agencies involved in Everglades restoration.
 - Provide planning and technical information to the public.
 - Facilitate two-way dialogue between the public and staff.
- The results of the workshop will be formally transmitted to the Corps and South Florida Water Management District (SFWMD).

Workshop Format

- Welcome to the conversation!
- Today's workshop is being webcast live and recorded.
- Virtual participation is available by registering for the Zoom webinar on EvergladesRestoration.gov
- Two different ways to participate in the Zoom Webinar:
 - Q&A Session: Written questions can be posed during the Q&A portion of the agenda via the Chat feature.
 - Public Comment: Oral comments can be provided at the conclusion of the workshop with the Raise Hand feature.

Q&A Session via Chat

- In your controls at the bottom of the Zoom window, click or tap the Chat icon.
- A chat window will appear. It will either be on the right (if you are not in full screen mode) or in a separate window (if you are in full screen).
- Type your message and press Enter to send it to the workshop moderators.

Q&A Session via Chat

- The workshop moderators will then read your questions to the panelists.
- The moderators may combine similar questions in order to get to as many questions as possible in the time allowed.
- The moderators will also try to pose any follow up questions in a timely manner.

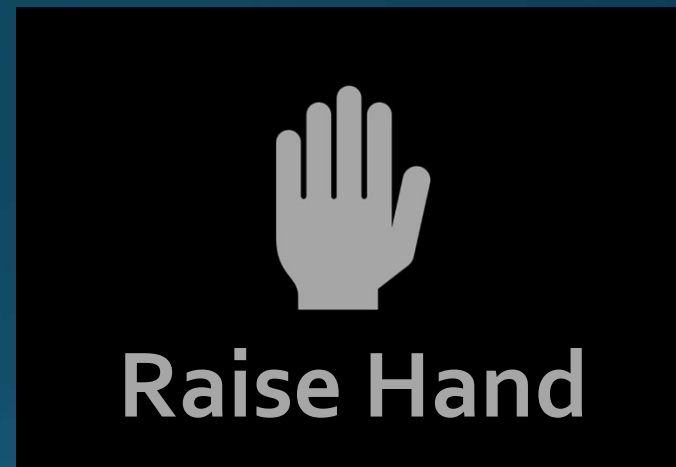

Public Comment via Raise Hand

- At the beginning of the public comment period, click the Raise Hand icon at the bottom of your screen if you'd like to speak.
- The workshop moderators will be notified that you've raised your hand.

Public Comment via Raise Hand

- The workshop moderators will call on individuals wishing to speak.
- Your microphone will be unmuted for you.
- A timer will appear on-screen.
- Please keep your comments to the time allowed.
